B. On days of abstinence, those bound by the law abstain from meat.

End of Life Issues

Human life is always good. From the first moment of our existence we are eternal beings, possessing a God-given and changeless dignity. Our faith asks us to reach out to persons nearing death with positive responses to their needs for companionship, hope and comfort. As Catholics we are called to affirm that death is the beginning rather than the end of life. March Book The Gift of Peace Personal Reflections by Joseph Cardinal Bernardin Autobiography

Bernardin's gentle leadership throughout his life of ministerial service had made him an internationally beloved figure, but the words he left behind about his final journey would change the lives of many more people from all faiths, from all backgrounds, and from all over the world. The Gift of Peace reveals the Cardinal's spiritual growth amid a string of traumatic events: a false accusation of sexual abuse; reconciliation a year later with his accuser, who had earlier recanted the charges; and a diagnosis of pancreatic cancer and surgery. Bernardin tells his story openly and honestly, and shares the profound peace he came to at the end of his life.

From the Diocese of Fall River

Online sexual exploitation is a serious problem. Approximately 1 in 5 children is sexually solicited online. Please visit the Catholic Social Services website: www.cssdioc.org and go to the "Protecting God's Children" main page. There, you will find many resources for Internet safety and other topics. Or, if you have questions, please call Debora Jones at (508) 674-4681.
