March Book The Gift of Peace Personal Reflections by Joseph Cardinal Bernardin Autobiography

Bernardin's gentle leadership throughout his life of ministerial service had made him an internationally beloved figure, but the words he left behind about his final journey would change the lives of many more people from all faiths, from all backgrounds, and from all over the world. The Gift of Peace reveals the Cardinal's spiritual growth amid a string of traumatic events: a false accusation of sexual abuse; reconciliation a year later with his accuser, who had earlier recanted the charges; and a diagnosis of pancreatic cancer and surgery. Bernardin tells his story openly and honestly, and shares the profound peace he came to at the end of his life.

From the Diocese of Fall River

Listen to your children! If a child feels uncomfortable around a relative or friend whom you trust, do not dismiss the concern. Spend time talking with your child about the reasons for the discomfort and no matter what you think about the adult, be willing to be present to give your child a feeling of safety. This is one key way in which you can create the trust that allows for other important conversations, such as avoiding drugs and alcohol. And you just might find out that there was good reason for your child's concern. Better to be safe than sorry! If you would like more information on how to handle such situations, please visit the Catholic Social Services website at www.cssdioc.org or call Debora Jones at 508-674-4681.
