SEPTEMBER Book Say You're One of Them Uwem Akpan SJ (oo-wum-AKpan) Fiction

Each of the five stories in this jubilantly acclaimed collection pays tribute to the wisdom and resilience of children, even in the face of the most agonizing circumstances. A family living in a makeshift shanty in urban Kenya scurries to find gifts of any kind for the impending Christmas holiday. A young brother and sister cope with their uncle's attempt to sell them into slavery. Aboard a bus filled with refugees – a microcosm of today's Africa –

a Muslim boy summons his faith to bear a treacherous ride across Nigeria. (We will be using a study guide.)

Fr. Uwem Akpan was born and reared in Nigeria. He was ordained as a Jesuit priest in 2005.

One of the best books of the year!
Wall St. Journal, Bloomberg News,
Washington Post Book World and Entertainment Weekly.

Bible Study

. . . is held each week on Friday morning after the 8:30 AM Mass in Room A-1. All are welcome and encouraged to attend. All materials are supplied.

— UPCOMING EVENTS —

Our Catholic Catechism states, "Deacons share in Christ's mission and grace in a special way. The sacrament of Holy Orders marks them with an imprint ("character") which cannot be removed and which configures them to Christ, who made himself the "deacon" or servant of all."

On Monday, September 27, Deacons Lemay, Fantasia and Beckel
will share their journeys in the Diaconate.
Everyone is invited to this very special program. Refreshments will be served following the presentations.
